Dave is a graduate of Colgate University with 25 years of experience in the securities business working with individuals, executives and closely-held business owners. The predominant theme of his professional life is outstanding service at a fair cost.

Making his home in Ridgefield, Connecticut, Dave is married to Peggy Ceponis, and has been blessed with 3 children, ages 24, 22 and 19. Both Dave and Peggy are active in their local church, especially working with youth. Dave has also coached wrestling, basketball and softball throughout the years with his children.

Personally, Dave is an aging week-end warrior and outdoor enthusiast. He is often found at the local YMCA playing “hoops”, swimming, stretching or biking.
